GREEN SCREEN | The Environmental Film Series
NOVEMBER 2-13, 2015

GREEN SCREEN | The Environmental Film Series was created by Sustain T&T, an environmental and sustainability education non-profit, to bring environmental messages to the public through the medium of film.

Five years after our first Green Screen installment launched at the trinidad + tobago film festival's backyard space, the series has grown significantly. In the years since, we have screened critically acclaimed films from all corners of the globe, as well as home-grown content, including our own. Sustain T&T has used the Green Screen platform to launch educational animated short films as well as short-format documentary content about climate change in Trinidad and Tobago.

The response to our screenings and films has encouraged us to continue making and screening films, but one thing has become very clear to us – we would never be able to do any of this without the support of our sponsors, partners, collaborators and a public that is growing in its appetite for film and environmental knowledge. We make it happen together.

“together” is our theme this year and is reflected in the collaborative events and projects we will present in conjunction with partners who share a similar vision for the space we are creating for thinkers and doers in Trinidad and Tobago.

A BETTER PLACE
The Project

This year we will premiere our own feature-length documentary film, produced with the support of the UNDP GEF SGP. "A Better Place" takes the viewer to five communities in T&T where people are doing great things, charting their own course and inspiring others to do the same. Each of the featured organizations is also supported by UNDP GEF SGP. The film features musical performances from home-grown talent.

A Better Place will travel to communities throughout T&T, supported by short workshops to help small organizations and individuals assess their own capacity for producing paradigm-shifting projects, like those featured in our movie.

These community outreach activities will kick off at San Fernando Hill on Tuesday 10th November with a screening of "A Better Place" and a Q&A with project participants who appear in the film.

A BETTER PLACE
For Schools

High school students will also have the opportunity to see the film for free with special screenings on both Tuesday 3rd and Wednesday 4th November at 8:30am and 10:00am. (DIGICEL IMAX)

To book spaces in these screenings please call 745-6017 or email greenscreen.rsvp@gmail.com with the size of your class, name of your school, day and time preferred and a contact number for the teacher accompanying the students.

Students will be engaged in a discussion about Climate Change impacts on T&T after the feature, with the support of the European Union

ANGEL AZUL

Directed by Marcy Cravat
2014 | USA | ENGLISH | DOCUMENTARY | 74 MIN

Through the hauntingly beautiful lure of Jason deCaires Taylor's life-like underwater statues, we witness the birth of an artificial coral reef, learn how we are inextricably connected to the ocean and everything in it, and are left to consider how our choices will determine what we leave to future generations.

THE FIRST RASTA

Directed by
Hélène Lee and Christophe Farnier
2010 | FRANCE
ENGLISH | DOCUMENTARY | 86 MIN

The young Leonard Percival Howell (1893 – 1981) left his native Jamaica, became a sailor and travelled the world. On his way, he chanced upon all the ideas that stirred his time. From Bolshevism to New Thought, from Gandhi to anarchism, from Garveyism to psychoanalysis, he sought to find his promised land. With this cocktail of ideas Leonard "Gong" Howell returned to Jamaica and founded Pinnacle, the first Rasta community in 1939. By recreating a backdrop of that time from film archives, police reports and newspaper articles, we follow in the wake of this adventurer and track the evolution of his thinking and the development of his self-reliant community living off the land.

AFTER PARTY together with Bass Yard | 9PM | $TT 60
BIG BLACK BOX

A classic action flick set in a post-apocalyptic world where oil is more valuable than gold. Without alternative forms of energy rag-tag groups of marauders jostle for control of old refineries and oil reservoirs, with Max at the center of it all.

This year's Green Screen closes with a bang!

A screening of the classic, post-apocalyptic, action-filled Mad Max 2: The Road Warrior at the Big Black Box will be followed by an After-Party together with Bass Yard.

Look forward to an eclectic mix of progressive music.

JONAH

Directed by Kibwe Tavares
2013 | ZANZIBAR-UK | ENGLISH
NARRATIVE SHORT | 17 MIN

Winner of the Special Jury Award from Sundance in 2013, this narrative short tells the story of Mbwana and his best friend Juma, two young men with big dreams. These dreams become reality when they photograph a gigantic fish leaping out of the sea and their small town blossoms into a tourist hot-spot as a result. Through this story the film explores the effects of tourism, globalization and commercialization in Zanzibar. A visual feast, shot with humour and warmth, it tells an old story in a completely new way.

SANTA CRUZ DEL ISLOTE

Directed by Luke Loretzen
2014 | USA | Spanish with English subtitles
DOCUMENTARY SHORT | 19 MIN

Santa Cruz del Isloite is a three-acre island about fifty miles off the coast of Cartagena, Colombia. It is a community of about 600 people, making it one of the most densely populated islands in the world. This region's lucrative fishing, which encouraged such overdevelopment, has dwindled in recent years, and the island's subsistence has become increasingly uncertain. In following a fisherman and a ten-year-old boy, this short documentary captures the complexity of cherishing a peaceful way of life that can no longer continue with ease.
